

Sunny

September 9, 2024

My Sunny Bunny,

Sunny was a ray of sunshine and brightened up any room he entered and was the light in my life. The happiest, goofiest boy, all smiles all the time. He was happy just to be involved. He loved sticks, squeaky toys, treats, his kitty cats and other pup sibling and everyone he met. My soul dog who helped me, a lost girl, make it through her 20s. He took a piece of me with him and he will forever be loved, missed, and remembered. Until our souls find each other again Sun Bun. I love you. Thank you Schafer family, for taking care of and honoring my boy.
