

Theo

May 24, 2025

Theo came to our lives 5 years ago and blessed our life with his presence. He was a loving, playful, and funny furbaby that was adored by his family. Theo enjoyed car rides, being outside and feeling the air blowing in his face. He was a gentle soul. A tragic accident took him from us too soon and he is deeply missed by his family. Life is not the same without him. Everything reminds us of you, Theo. We wish we could go back in time, take you places you'd never been before and given you constant treats. You will forever and always be in our hearts, Theo. We love you and miss you!!
