

Tinker

July 1, 2006 - September 15, 2023

For 17 years Tinker was a daddy's girl. She had such a big personality for such a little thing - kept her bigger little brothers in line and didn't hesitate to let anyone know what she thought. She is now running free of pain and giving her bigger little brother heck at the Rainbow Bridge. She was one our favorite hellos and one of the hardest goodbyes! Loved beyond measure, missed beyond words. Til we meet again.
