

Trooper

December 1, 2023

My sweet trooper has been apart of the family for some time. My sister rescued him when he was puppy. Unfortunately she couldn't keep him, but my boyfriend and I were more than happy to take him in. January 10, 2023 we brought our baby boy home. Although we didn't have him very long he sure was my best friend. He had the best smile and could always cheer you up. He was the best at cuddling. He loved playing with chew toys, car rides, and camping at the lake.

It's not the same without you. Athena misses her brother and she's always looking for you I just know it. My baby got his wings November 30, 2023. Although his life was far too short he'll forever live in our hearts. We miss you sweet boy. Rest easy Troop-Troop, we love you.
