In Loving Memory of Violet Marie

Violet Marie, my beloved fur angel, graced my life for many wonderful years. A cherished rescue, she was brimming with spark and an undeniable understanding that she ruled the roost. She was more than a pet; she was family.

My sweet girl, you were my rescuer as much as I was yours. We found solace and healing in each other's company, overcoming the scars of our past. The love we shared was boundless, and the joy and laughter you brought into my life was unparalleled. You were a heavenly gift, a source of immeasurable happiness.

Rest peacefully, my sweet Violet Marie. Your paw prints will forever grace my hearts, and your memory will live on in the love and light you brought to my home. Thank you for the unconditional love and beautiful moments. Until we meet again, run free over the rainbow bridge.
