

Winnie

October 21, 2024

Winnie is remembered as a happy, sassy companion who brightened everyone's day. She was a great example of the French Bulldog with a calm disposition, bravery, and sense of humor that made everyone happy. That is not to say she tolerated fools gladly; she was always happy to ignore people who annoyed her. Winnie loved car rides and meals, and watching the neighborhood. She also enjoyed shredding paper and unrolling the bathroom tissue, often from room to room when she could get away with it. She was a big dog in a small body, and will be missed terribly.
